

Friends of Marlipins Museum

Winter Series of Lunchtime Talks

The Crown Jewels

An illustrated talk by Pat Kingshott

Pat Kingshott worked in the Jewel House within the Tower of London for 10 years, quickly gaining a thorough knowledge of the history of the incredible, precious collection of the 'Crown Jewels'.

Because of her extensive knowledge, Pat was quickly promoted to Senior Warden. Pat's presentations have become popular on cruise ships and a variety of organisations. Pat and her husband Alan, who was Chief Yeoman Warder, retired to West Sussex.

Friday, January 11th, 12.30pm

Marlipins Museum

ENTRANCE: side entrance in Middle Street

Entrance Fee: Members £3 Non-Members £4